Scouts must READ the most current merit badge book and BRING the book to class with the completed prerequisites listed on each merit badge prior to the event. If a Scout uses information found on the internet it should correspond to that found in the current merit badge book. The day of the event the Scouts should be prepared to actively participate in discussions and present the material required. As in the past Scouts who come prepared will be able to complete the merit badge the day of the event. Those who require extra time will have the counselor's name and phone number so they can make arrangements to complete the merit badge at a later date. The merit badge counselor has the final say as to whether the Scout has completed the merit badge.
Bring a Blue Card signed by your unit leader for each Merit Badge.

The UNIFORM for this event is Class "A" from the waist up. *All other optional i.e., pants, shorts, caps and or sash. Feel free to copy this flyer and/or pass them on to others who may be interested. Signups are on a first come basis and there is limited space available to ensure the quality of the event.*If you have specific questions about individual merit badges or requirements contact the merit badge counselor listed above.

Fee: Each session is $12, which covers materials, facilities, drinks, snacks - Lunch for Scouts attending both am & pm sessions. No onsite registration. Registration deadline date is 02/06/2010.
